

There was no food anywhere except the food Joseph had collected in Egypt. One day, ten of Joseph's brothers came to Egypt to buy food but they didn't recognise Joseph.

The Pharaoh had a dream about the future of Egypt, and Joseph told Pharaoh what the dream meant. There were going to be seven years with lots of food, then seven years with no food. So Pharaoh put Joseph in charge. Joseph collected lots of food during the seven good years.

Joseph decided to test his brothers by telling them to come back with their brother Benjamin. Joseph told them that one brother would have to stay in Egypt until they returned. The brothers did what Joseph told them, but they still didn't recognise Joseph!

Once the brothers were all together Joseph showed them who he was. He forgave his brothers and they were so happy to see him!
